- (a) To promote education in the art, science and sport of fly fishing in a sporting method of angling consistent with the conservation of and best use of sport fishing resources.
- (b) To promote education among its members and the public in the techniques of fly fishing, fly tying, fly casting and related angling subjects, including but not limited to stream and lake entomology.
- “(c) To educate its members and the general sports fishing public about developments that affect the conservation and propagation of sports fishing resources.
- (d) To advance the knowledge of fly fishing, to elevate the standard of integrity, honor and courtesy of fly fishers and to cherish the spirit of unity among anglers everywhere.
- (e) To provide assistance to the state of Washington and the federal government in the development and implementation of conservation programs for the conservation of and propagation of sport fishing resources.
- (f) To promote and maintain close relationships with organizations, whose purpose is consistent with the concerns of this corporation, as well as to promote and maintain close relationships with state and federal agencies concerned with the sport of angling and to work towards common goals.

Article III:

The Corporation is not formed for pecuniary or financial gain, and no part of the assets, income, or profit of the Corporation is distributable to, or inures to the benefit of its members, directors or officers except to the extent permitted under the Non-Profit Corporation Act of the State of Washington.

Article IV: Corporation of Officers and their election

Section 1. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Secretary, and treasurer.

Section 2. A nomination committee shall be appointed by the President at the first meeting in September, to consist of three members. The committee shall select a complete list of one or more candidates from each office for the succeeding year and present them at the meeting in October.

Additional nominations may be made from the floor. Persons nominated must be members in good standing in order to qualify for nomination. To be qualified for the nomination to the position of President of the South Sound Fly Fishers, the candidates must have been a member of the board of Directors for one year in the previous five years.

Section 3. Election of officers shall be by ballot of members present, and shall be held at the first meeting in November of each year. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes for each office shall be elected.

Section 4. In the event of a vacancy arising in any office, the Board of Directors shall have the power to fill same by appointment and keep it filled until the next annual meeting.

Section 5. The president shall preside at tall meetings of the south Sound Fly Fishers and the board of Directors and shall perform such duties as usually pertain to the office of the President of similar organizations. The President shall appoint the following standing committees: legislative, publicity, conservation, education, and ghillie; and other similar committees as occasion may require.

Section 6. The 1st Vice President shall perform the duties of the President in the President's absence. The 1st Vice President shall also automatically be chair of the membership committee.

Section 7. The 2nd Vice President shall be the chair of the program committee, and shall select the membership of this committee.

Section 8. The Secretary shall keep records of all meetings and shall perform all such duties as usually pertain to the office of Secretary.

Section 9. The Treasurer shall collect all dues of members and all other funds of the South Sound Fly Fishers, and as Treasurer shall deposit all monies in the bank selected by the Board of Directors. Moreover, the Treasurer shall pay all bills against the SSFF after approval by the Board of Directors or their designee, and shall perform all duties as usually pertain to the office of Treasurer.

Section 10. All officer shall perform the duties prescribed in the parliamentary authority in addition to those outlined in these Bylaws and those assigned from time to time.

Section 11. Officers shall assume their official duties at the first meeting in January after their election, and shall serve for a term of one year and shall deliver to their successors all official material of the SSFF not later than ten days following the election of their successors.

Section 12. Removal. Any officer may be removed for good cause after an affirmative vote for removal of not less than seven directors. Removal motions shall be voted upon at a special meeting of the Board called for that express purpose which shall be called by the President or a majority of the Board. Special meetings to consider removal of an officer shall be held with not less than seven days written notice to all of the directors, including the officer whose removal is sought.

Article V: Membership and Dues

Section 1. Membership is open to any person wishing to adhere to the purposes of the South Sound fly Fishers.

Section 2. New members shall be assessed an initiation fee to be set by the Board of Directors. The Funds from this shall be spent only for purchase of SSFF patches and name tags.

Section 3 The dues of the South Sound Fly Fishers shall be assessed annually by the Board of Directors, payable for the calendar year (January 1- December 31), and payable by the third regular meeting of that year. New members accepted for membership after July 1st shall pay one-half of the annual dues.

Section 4 If any members have not paid their dues by the end of the third meeting of the year, they shall be considered delinquent and dropped from the South Sound Fly Fishers' roster. A delinquent member may be reinstated any time that year, by payment of the full annual dues. The Board of Directors shall have absolute discretionary powers over any final action taken pursuant to this section.

Article VI: Board of Directors

Section 1 The Board of Directors will consist of ten directors.

Section 2 The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, the immediate Past President, and four Directors-at-large. The duties and responsibilities of the Directors-at-large shall be determined by the President. When the SSFF is not in session, all powers of the SSFF shall be vested in the Board of Directors. Matters pertaining to policies, management and administration of SSFF shall be referred to the Board of Directors before being acted upon by the SSFF.

Section 3 Directors-at-large shall hold terms for two years. These four positions shall be staggered, with positions 1 and 3 being elected for a two year term beginning in January of odd numbered years and positions 2 and 4 being elected for a two year term beginning in January of even numbered years.

Section 4 In the event of a vacancy arising in any office, the Board of Directors shall have the power to fill the same by appointment and keep it filled until the next annual meeting. At that election, appointee shall stand for election for the balance of the term, if any, remaining for that position.

Section 5 Removal. At the discretion of the Board of Directors, any board members failing to fulfill their duties, or for good cause, can be removed from the Board after an affirmative vote for removal of not less than seven directors. Removal motions shall be voted upon at a special meeting of the Board called for that express purpose which shall be called by the President of the Board or a majority of the Board.
